

NAACP OPENS HEADQUARTERS

DAYTON

Dayton and Montgomery County leaders and members of the Dayton Unit of the NAACP on Tuesday celebrated the opening of the organization's new headquarters at 915 Salem Ave., near Harvard Boulevard and across from Grace United Methodist Church. The event included a tour of the building, a reception and a celebration of the NAACP's corporate, business and community partners. The Dayton unit plans to host its 72nd annual Hall of Freedom awards at 6:30 p.m. Friday, Oct. 27, at the Dayton Convention Center.
